

TiP Lab is coming to your neighbourhood

What does your neighbourhood mean to you?
How do you remember it? How do you want it to be?

WHAT IS TiP?

TiP is a mobile lab, an online archive and a temporary museum. It is a platform for collecting, sharing and building the city's living memory, as told by anyone who wants to contribute. Do you have a favourite object, heirloom or specimen, pictures or stories about the city and your neighbourhood that you would like to share? Would you like to check out other people's stories?

Here is how you can participate:

- 1) On Aug. 20, at 2:00 pm, we will visit the West Neighbourhood House to explain the project. Come and introduce yourself, tell us your stories, bring photos or objects. Our TiP mailbox will be available for a few days so you can come back and drop stuff.
- 2) Share your stories online and add pictures to our map. Send us a message at info@space-for-place.ca to learn more.
- 3) On Sept. 2, we will bring the mobile lab to Trinity Bellwoods Park. Come say hi, and if you haven't done so, bring yourself and your contribution!

TELL US EVERYTHING ABOUT THE CITY YOU KNOW,
THE CITY YOU REMEMBER AND THE CITY YOU WANT!
